Rev Canon John William Dilnot 1936-2020

We remember Canon John, who died last weekend, with affection and admiration. He was a selfless support in times of need. Those of us who benefitted from his pastoral care will be forever grateful. He developed the St Augustine's Centre and the complete re-building of St Eanswythe's School. To his vision and liturgical gifts we owe the creation of the beautiful space at the head of the nave and the renewal of our patterns of worship on Sundays and major festivals.

May he rest in peace and rise in glory.

Fr John will be on holiday from lunchtime on 22nd to lunchtime on 28th October. He will preside on Sunday 25th October, but Fr John Tomlinson will preach.

Rainbow Centre: The cheques and cash for the Rainbow Centre amounted to £330. Pam Keeling will be delivering them this week. Thank you to all supporters.

Warm Coats are needed for asylum seekers at Napier Barracks. If you are able to donate an item please leave at the back of the church.

The Annual Parochial Church Meeting took place on the 4th October. The following representatives were elected:

Churchwardens: Pam Mullett and Andrew Plested.

Deanery Synod: Vicky Friedrich and Clare Tomlinson.

PCC: Pam Keeling, Jenny Coleman, David Wright,
Ian Gordon, Jan Clarke and Patricia Skelton.
