About two of today's hymns:

Richard Wood writes, "For Christ the King Sunday I hope every year for that wonderful hymn Christ triumphant ever reigning. It is particularly memorable to me for I actually gained an Alpha for an essay on it while at the Canterbury School of Ministry. Something which did not often happen!"

David Wright writes, "When I was a lad, we moved from an industrial part of Leeds to a village called Seacroft where a new estate was being built. The first service of the new, yet to be built, St Richard's Church was held in a Clerk of Works hut and the pews were rows of toilet bowls ready for installation in the new houses. The music was provided by the Rev Mr Ludlow on his violin! Every time I hear this Praise my soul the king of heaven it takes me back to those days."

Refreshments after services: We still need someone to help with refreshments on 28 November, and there's also a new rota to fill in for the New Year. If you're able to help, please sign up on the lists at the back of the Church.

Shepway Food Bank need Razors, Shaving foam, Tinned meat, Small Christmas puddings, and Toilet rolls. Please place in the orange bin at the back of the church.
